

UHC Forward is a comprehensive platform that consolidates information related to universal health coverage reforms from hundreds of sources into a one-stop portal. We hope that visitors will be able to stay informed of health coverage efforts in countries around the world, explore key issues and policy debates related to universal health coverage, exchange ideas with others by submitting blogs or articles, and find links to additional resources to support their own efforts.

PRODUCTS

Led by the Results for Development Institute (R4D), in collaboration with numerous in-country and global partners. This site offers:

- A blog featuring interviews with experts, practitioners, and country leaders engaged in UHC reforms
- A daily newsfeed
- Comparative case studies of reforms
- Featured publications
- Two accompanying newsletters: The Week in Headlines (weekly) and the UHC Update (monthly)

STATISTICS (2012)

- Number of visitors: 22, 150
- Site visitor location: 164 countries
- E-News Subscribers: 2,137

HISTORY

UHC Forward launched in January 2012. UHC Forward is funded by the Rockefeller Foundation and powered by the Results for Development Institute. Guided by a distinguished Panel of Advisors, UHC Forward aims to motivate and facilitate increased global knowledge and discussion of universal health coverage.

